Introduction

Jim Bruton tells the story of how, as a boy, he and a young friend would grab their home-made sling shots and try to shoot down B-26 airplanes as they flew over his house. You see, he lived near an air force base where the pilots would make frequent training runs. As the low vibration of the engine approached they would secure their backyard vantage point and wait. At just the right moment, they would each launch a stone and expectantly listen for a pling that might indicate that they had made a direct hit. At their age, they did not truly grasp the impossibility of what they were trying to do. Not only were the planes hopelessly out of range, the small stones that they flung skyward would barely have been capable of scratching the paint.

Colossians 1:22 tells us that through Christ's death, those who believe were reconciled to God and presented holy, faultless, and blameless before God. When, by self-effort or human tradition, a person tries to reach the standard that Christ fully achieved for us at the cross, it is as if we are hurling the stone of self-effort into the air and believing we will hit an orbiting space shuttle.

The gospel of Christ stands apart. It has a wisdom of its own. It does not depend on clever arguments or human performance. It depends on Christ alone. Only Christ can break the power of sin. Only He can present us holy, faultless, and blameless before God the Father. He did it fully and effectively on the cross.

This Week

As you study this week, allow your spiritual roots to soak in the truth of what Christ accomplished for you on the cross. Delight yourself in the Lord and let him renew your perspective. Rest in His abundant grace and ask Him to work in you through you to accomplish His purposes.

① EXAMINE His Word

What does God SAY? Prayerfully note significant details and terms emphasized in the passage.

Read Colossians 2

1 For I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you, for those in Laodicea, and for all who have not seen me in person.

2 I want their hearts to be encouraged and joined together in love, so that they may have all the riches of assured understanding and have the knowledge of God's mystery—Christ.

3 All the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are hidden in Him.

4 I am saying this so that no one will deceive you with persuasive arguments.

5 For I may be absent in body, but I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see how well ordered you are and the strength of your faith in Christ.

6 Therefore, as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in Him,

7 rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, overflowing with gratitude.

8 Be careful that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit based on human tradition, based on the elemental forces of the world, and not based on Christ.

9 For the entire fullness of God's nature dwells bodily in Christ,

10 and you have been filled by Him, who is the head over every ruler and authority.

11 You were also circumcised in Him with a circumcision not done with hands, by putting off the body of flesh, in the circumcision of the Messiah.

12 Having been buried with Him in baptism, you were also raised with Him through faith in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead.

13 And when you were dead in trespasses and in the uncircumcision of your flesh, He made you alive with Him and forgave us all our trespasses.

14 He erased the certificate of debt, with its obligations, that was against us and opposed to us, and has taken it out of the way by nailing it to the cross.

15 He disarmed the rulers and authorities and disgraced them publicly; He triumphed over them by Him.

16 Therefore, don't let anyone judge you in regard to food and drink or in the matter of a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath day.

17 These are a shadow of what was to come; the substance is the Messiah.

18 Let no one disqualify you, insisting on ascetic practices and the worship of angels, claiming access to a visionary realm and inflated without cause by his unspiritual mind.

19 He doesn't hold on to the head, from whom the whole body, nourished and held together by its ligaments and tendons, develops with growth from God.

20 If you died with the Messiah to the elemental forces of this world, why do you live as if you still belonged to the world? Why do you submit to regulations:

21 "Don't handle, don't taste, don't touch"?

22 All these regulations refer to what is destroyed by being used up; they are commands and doctrines of men.

23 Although these have a reputation of wisdom by promoting ascetic practices, humility, and severe treatment of the body, they are not of any value in curbing self-indulgence.

② EXPLORE His Word

What does God MEAN?

In verses 1-5, "so that..." is used 2 times. What follows gives us a good idea of Paul's underlying reasons for writing to the Colossians. In your own words, state Paul's two concerns.

2. Paul then adds “Therefore....” Please explain the exhortations in verses 6-7 more fully:

a) Walk in Him (c.f. Galatians 5:16, 18, 2 John 1:6)

b) Rooted in Him

- Look up the word “root” in the dictionary and use the definitions to help explain what Paul meant.)

- In what practical ways can a believer draw life giving strength from Christ?

c) Built up in Him (Ephesians 2:20-22)

d) Established in the faith-

- “Established” comes from a legal term that means “confirmed.” Connect this with faith as defined in Hebrew 11:1.

- How might your life confirm or testify to your faith, which is invisible?

- Let’s consider the opposite question. Is there any way that your life may fail to confirm your faith?

e) Overflowing with gratitude

- Verses 9-15 give us reasons to be grateful! List all of Christ’s work and note the completeness of it.

- Pick one thing from the above list for which you are particularly grateful and explain why.

3. From the outside, it can be difficult to tell the difference between living by faith and legalism. What is the difference? Complete the chart below to help clarify.

	(Religious) Legalism	Faith
Goal of living this way	<sup>1</sup>Earn God's favor <sup>2</sup>Creating specific requirements, outside of scripture, as means of qualification in the local church	<sup>1</sup>Believing Christ's death sufficient for reconciliation by presenting me holy, blameless before God <sup>2</sup>Living to please God
Example from this passage
Power &amp;/or control for living this way
Results (in my life AND in the lives of those who observe me)
Why this is appealing
Examples of ways that I experience this in my life

4. In light of the fact that Paul warns against all types of legalism, what place, do “spiritual disciplines” such as prayer, personal Bible study, and fasting have in the life of the faith-filled believer?

③ EMBRACE His Word

Why does this MATTER to me?

Summarize your thoughts on the passage:

In one statement, write what God wants you to KNOW...

In one statement, write how God wants you to FEEL...

In one statement, write what God wants you to DO...
