Over the last two weeks we have been looking at how to rest in Jesus. We rest in knowing His authority and power and we rest by looking to Him instead of ourselves. This week we will look at a fantastic passage out of the book of Romans. When you first read this passage you may not think about how it leads us to rest in Jesus. But, this week we will talk about the hope and peace we find in Jesus and how hope and peace are important to us finding rest in Him. Are you resting in the hope and peace we have in Jesus Christ?

Romans 5:1-11 (NASB)

Results of Justification

5 Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ²through whom also we have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God. ³And not only this, but we also exult in our tribulations, knowing that tribulation brings about perseverance;⁴ and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope; ⁵and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out within our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

⁶For while we were still helpless, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷For one will hardly die for a righteous man; though perhaps for the good man someone would dare even to die. ⁸But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. ⁹Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him. ¹⁰For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life. ¹¹And not only this, but we also exult in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.
