Introduction

During the 1984 Los Angeles Olympic Games, an American named Greg Foster was the favorite to win the 110 meter hurdles. Because of his dominance in this event, ABC did a short pre-event biography on him. On the day of the race, the gun went off and the runners charged toward the hurdles. Even though Foster was obviously nervous, he kept the lead. Unfortunately, just as he vaulted over the last hurdle, he turned his head ever so slightly to see where everyone else was. This was a critical mistake. The act of taking his eyes off of the finish line cost him the race. In that fraction of a second, another American, Tom Jefferson, managed to inch ahead and win the gold.

Paul compares the Christian life to running a race and urges the Philippians to keep their eyes focused on the finish line. To know Christ and to continue growing in Christ-likeness, Paul says believers must make every effort to reach the goal. You and I will never get to the point where we can say, "I have arrived." Neither should we look at our past and erroneously conclude that it is a hopeless pursuit. God desires us to set our sights squarely on our Lord Jesus Christ. He wants us, by faith, to lay aside everything that hinders us and the sin that so often entangles us. He wants us to run knowing that God himself will provide all that we need to persevere in this race.

Regardless of where you are, God invites you to run. Remember that this earth is not your final home. You were created for something much better.

As the writer of Hebrews said,

"Let us, then run with patience the race that is set before us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God." (Hebrew 12:1-2)

This Week

As you read, prayerfully think about the goal of your life, and compare them to God's goal for you. Are you making every effort to attain that for which God has called you?

① EXAMINE His Word

What does God SAY? The words God uses to communicate matters so pay close attention to the details emphasized or repeated in the passage:

Philippians 3:1-11

<sup>12</sup>Not that I have already reached the goal or am already fully mature, but I make every effort to take hold of it because I also have been taken hold of by Christ Jesus.

<sup>13</sup>Brothers, I do not consider myself to have taken hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and reaching forward to what is ahead, <sup>14</sup>I pursue as my goal the prize promised by God's heavenly call in Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>Therefore, all who are mature should think this way. And if you think differently about anything, God will reveal this also to you.

<sup>16</sup>In any case, we should live up to whatever truth we have attained.

<sup>17</sup>Join in imitating me, brothers, and observe those who live according to the example you have in us.

<sup>18</sup>For I have often told you, and now say again with tears, that many live as enemies of the cross of Christ.

<sup>19</sup>Their end is destruction; their god is their stomach; their glory is in their shame. They are focused on earthly things, <sup>20</sup>but our citizenship is in heaven, from which we also eagerly wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>21</sup>He will transform the body of our humble condition into the likeness of His glorious body, by the power that enables Him to subject everything to Himself.

② DISCOVER His Word

What does God MEAN? Answer the following questions and then bring to your COMMUNITY GROUP to discover and discuss with others.

- What do you think was God's goal when he took hold of you? What is the goal of Christian life that Paul refers to in verse 12?
    - How can you, as stated in verse 12, "Make every effort to take hold of it"?
  - How would you say that living the Christian life is like running a race? Look carefully through this passage and list as many possible "training principles" that you are able to find in this passage and elaborate a little on each. Tell which is most meaningful to you and why?
  - Why do you think it is important for believers to forget what is behind? How could not letting go of the past hinder your relationship to God and/or possible future service?
  - Look up the word "citizenship" in the dictionary. How does this add to your understanding of your identity in Christ?

b) How do the following passages address different aspects of citizenship? If possible, link this to the definition above.

a) Colossians 1: 21-22

b) 2 Corinthians 4:18

c) Hebrews 11:13-16

d) 2 Corinthians 5:20

5. This week, our core competency is single-mindedness from Matthew 6:33. Think about the major areas of your life such as work, relationships, finances, leisure time, etc... How might your own kingdom be in conflict with God's kingdom and what might you do about it?
