The second chapter of Titus gives instruction to many different groups. However it is important to notice that the salvation comes to all types of people. Paul tells us that the old and the young, the men and the women, the slave and the free all have responsibilities and all share in this offer of salvation. Join us this week as we look into the instruction that Paul passes on and at our own response to grace.

Titus 2 (NASB)

Duties of the Older and Younger

2 But as for you, speak the things which are fitting for sound doctrine. 2 Older men are to be temperate, dignified, sensible, sound in faith, in love, in perseverance.

3 Older women likewise are to be reverent in their behavior, not malicious gossips nor enslaved to much wine, teaching what is good, 4 so that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, 5 to be sensible, pure, workers at home, kind, being subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God will not be dishonored.

6 Likewise urge the young men to be sensible; 7 in all things show yourself to be an example of good deeds, with purity in doctrine, dignified, 8 sound in speech which is beyond reproach, so that the opponent will be put to shame, having nothing bad to say about us.

9 Urge bondslaves to be subject to their own masters in everything, to be well-pleasing, not argumentative, 10 not pilfering, but showing all good faith so that they will adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in every respect.

11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, 12 instructing us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires and to live sensibly, righteously and godly in the present age, 13 looking for the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus, 14 who gave Himself for us to redeem us from every lawless deed, and to purify for Himself a people for His own possession, zealous for good deeds.

15 These things speak and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one disregard you.

15. What worldly desires does our country need to turn from in order to pursue righteousness?

16. In verse 14 it says that God redeemed us and purified us for His own possession, that we would be zealous for good deeds. What does it look like in your life to be zealous for good deeds? What makes this easy and what makes this hard? Give some examples.
