This week we will take a look at one of the great Psalms in the Old Testament, Psalm 119. Psalm 119 is the longest Psalm in the Bible. The Psalm is primarily about the greatness of the Word of God. We will look at how we should view the Word of God along with the advantages that it brings us. So often we think of the Word of God as being a set of do's and don'ts. No one likes to study rules and regulations all the time. But it is a mistake to see the Bible in this way. The Word of the Lord is much more. When we start to see the Word of God for all that it is then we will start to understand how it is sweeter than honey and how we can meditate on it all day. Join me this week as we take a look at the goodness and joy that comes from the Word of the Lord.

Psalm 119:97-104 (NASB)

⁹⁷ O how I love Your law!
It is my meditation all the day.
⁹⁸ Your commandments make me wiser
than my enemies,
For they are ever mine.
⁹⁹ I have more insight than all my teachers,
For Your testimonies are my meditation.
¹⁰⁰ I understand more than the aged,
Because I have observed Your precepts.
¹⁰¹ I have restrained my feet from every

evil way,
That I may keep Your word.
¹⁰² I have not turned aside from Your ordinances,
For You Yourself have taught me.
¹⁰³ How sweet are Your words to my taste!
Yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth!
¹⁰⁴ From Your precepts I get understanding;
Therefore I hate every false way.
