

The Measure Of A Christian

August 9, 2015

Acts 5

Vol. 5 Num. 32

Guest Speaker: Herman Munster

Using This Study

❶ EXAMINE His Word

What does God SAY? Open your time with prayer. The words God uses to communicate matters, so go back and pay close attention to the details that are emphasized or repeated in the passage.

❷ EXPLORE His Word

What does God MEAN? Asking questions of the text helps surface how the details relate to the message God wants to communicate.

❸ EMBRACE His Word

Why does it MATTER to me? Embrace God by responding to what you discover in His word in faith and obedience.

Like the first century church, the modern church is also confronted with challenges for spiritual growth. These challenges not only help the church to grow in size but to help believers mature in their faith.

When God is at work, Satan does his best to frustrate the Lord's efforts by attacking believers. In Acts 5, we see examples of how Satan attacked the early church...deception from within and distress from without. And yet in between we see the divine plan of God at work.

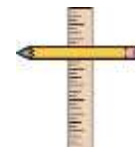

In Acts 4: 32-37, we learn that the early church was of "one heart and mind...no one claiming any of his possessions as his own...sharing everything they had." This excitement was contagious as believers gave of themselves and of everything they owned.

But in Acts 5:1-11, we learn that a couple by the name of Ananias and Sapphira sold some property yet held back a portion for themselves. Their sin was not in keeping some of the proceeds for themselves but in lying to the Holy Spirit. Their deception resulted in swift and severe punishment from God.

In spite of this setback, God's Spirit was powerfully at work as the apostles performed many miraculous signs and wonders as they preached the Gospel (Acts 5:12-16). Again, excitement spread among the people causing many to believe in the Lord.

But once again (Acts 5:17-42), Satan engaged another attack on the believers by causing the Sadducees to become jealous of their efforts of spreading the Gospel. As a result, they had the apostles arrested and put in jail. God's counter was to send an angel to the prison to set the believers free so they could continue to preach. Having learned of their escape, the religious leaders had the apostles brought before the Jewish Sanhedrin for questioning. At the advice of a Pharisee by the name of Gamaliel, they were set free and continued to share the Good News of Christ.

The lessons from Acts 5 are threefold: First, do you and I live according to the Word? Secondly, do you and I believe in the power of the Word? Thirdly, are you and I committed to spreading the Word? You see, these are the measures of a true believer in Christ.

① EXAMINE His Word (Observation)

What does God SAY? Prayerfully note significant details and terms emphasized in the passage

Read Acts 5 (NIV)

1 Now a man named Ananias, together with his wife Sapphira, also sold a piece of property. 2 With his wife's full knowledge he kept back part of the money for himself, but brought the rest and put it at the apostles' feet.

3 Then Peter said, "Ananias, how is it that Satan has so filled your heart that you have lied to the Holy Spirit and have kept for yourself some of the money you received for the land? 4 Didn't it belong to you before it was sold? And after it was sold, wasn't the money at your disposal? What made you think of doing such a thing? You have not lied to men but to God."

5 When Ananias heard this, he fell down and died. And great fear seized all who heard what had happened. 6 Then the young men came forward, wrapped up his body, and carried him out and buried him.

7 About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8 Peter asked her, "Tell me, is this the price you and Ananias got for the land?"

"Yes," she said, "that is the price."

9 Peter said to her, "How could you agree to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look! The feet of the men who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out also."

10 At that moment she fell down at his feet and died. Then the young men came in and, finding her dead, carried her out and buried her beside her husband. 11 Great fear seized the whole church and all who heard about these events.

12 The apostles performed many miraculous signs and wonders among the people. And all the believers used to meet together in Solomon's Colonnade. 13 No one else dared join them, even though they were highly regarded by the people. 14 Nevertheless, more and more men and women believed in the Lord and were added to their number. 15 As a result, people brought the sick into the streets and laid them on beds and mats so that at least Peter's shadow might fall on some of them as he passed by. 16 Crowds gathered also from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing their sick and those tormented by evil spirits, and all of them were healed.

17 Then the high priest and all his associates, who were members of the party of the Sadducees, were filled with jealousy. 18 They arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail. 19 But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the jail and brought them out. 20 "Go, stand in the temple courts," he said, "and tell the people the full message of this new life."

21 At daybreak they entered the temple courts, as they had been told, and began to teach the people. When the high priest and his associates arrived, they called together the Sanhedrin — the full assembly of the elders of Israel — and sent to the jail for the apostles. 22 But on arriving at the jail, the officers did not find them there. So they went back and reported, 23 "We found the jail securely locked, with the guards standing at the doors; but when we opened them, we found no one inside."

24 On hearing this report, the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests were puzzled, wondering what would come of this.

25 Then someone came and said, "Look! The men you put in jail are standing in the temple courts teaching the people." 26 At that, the captain went with his officers and brought the apostles. They did not use force, because they feared that the people would stone them.

27 Having brought the apostles, they made them appear before the Sanhedrin to be questioned by the high priest. 28 "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name," he said. "Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and are determined to make us guilty of this man's blood."

29 Peter and the other apostles replied: "We must obey God rather than men!"

30 The God of our fathers raised Jesus from the dead — whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. 31 God exalted him to his own right hand as Prince and Savior that he might give repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel. 32 We are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

33 When they heard this, they were furious and wanted to put them to death. 34 But a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, who was honored by all the people, stood up in the Sanhedrin and ordered that the men be put outside for a little while.

35 Then he addressed them: "Men of Israel, consider carefully what you intend to do to these men. 36 Some time ago Theudas appeared, claiming to be somebody, and about four hundred men rallied to him. He was killed, all his followers were dispersed, and it all came to nothing. 37 After him, Judas the Galilean appeared in the days of the census and led a band of people in revolt. He too was killed, and all his followers were scattered. 38 Therefore, in the present case I advise you: Leave these men alone! Let them go! For if their purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail. 39 But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop these men; you will only find yourselves fighting against God."

40 His speech persuaded them. They called the apostles in and had them flogged. Then they ordered them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 The apostles left the Sanhedrin, rejoicing because they had been counted worthy of suffering disgrace for the Name. 42 Day after day, in the temple courts and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Christ."

1. Summarize Verses 1-11 in ten words or less. Identify the main characters in this passage. Note the actions and attitudes for each person.
2. Also summarize Verses 12-16 also in ten words or less. Who are the main characters in this passage? List the actions and attitudes you observe for each individual. Where did all the believers gather to meet?
3. Again, summarize Verses 17-42 in ten words or less. Identify the main characters in this passage. What actions and attitudes do you note of the people in these verses?.
4. How would you summarize Acts 5 in ten words or less?

10. What instructions did the Angel of the Lord give to the Apostles?

11. What was Peter's defense in disobeying the Jewish leaders' command not to preach the Gospel?

12. Who was Gamaliel and what counsel did he give the other religious leaders?

13. Even though the religious leaders accepted Gamaliel's advice, why did they still have the Apostles flogged?

③ EMBRACE His Word (Application)

Why does this MATTER to me?

14. Have you ever made a promise that you couldn't or wouldn't keep? Why or why not?

15. Do you believe family members and friends find your faith attractive? Is so, why?

16. Have you ever been criticized for your faith? What were some things said about you? How did you respond ?

Summarize your thoughts on the passage:

Write about what God wants you to KNOW, to FEEL, and to DO...

SERMON NOTES