Using This Study

❶ EXAMINE His Word

What does God SAY? Open your time with prayer. The words God uses to communicate matters, so go back and pay close attention to the details that are emphasized or repeated in the passage.

❷ EXPLORE His Word

What does God MEAN? Asking questions of the text helps surface how the details relate to the message God wants to communicate.

❸ EMBRACE His Word

Why does it MATTER to me? Embrace God by responding to what you discover in His word in faith and obedience.

In this week's lesson, Luke 7:18-35, we learn that John the Baptist questioned if Jesus was the "Expected One." For whatever reason, John was distressed and had thoughts and feelings of doubt. The Scriptures record numerous examples of the faithful who struggled with doubt: Abraham (Genesis 17:17-18); Sarah (Genesis 18:12-15); Moses (Exodus 3:11); Jeremiah (Jeremiah 1:6); Jesus' disciples (Matthew 14:16-17); Martha (John 11:39); Ananias (Acts 9:13-14), to name a few.

No matter how long we have walked with the Lord, our faith will be tested with thoughts and feelings of doubt. It may be due to life's unfairness. Or possibly prayers that seem to go unanswered. Or maybe mistreatment from those closest to us. So, unless we view ourselves as Super-Christians, we will experience periods of doubt.

"Does this mean we should be afraid of asking questions? Shove them out of our minds at their first appearance? No, because sometimes it's in the depths of doubt that we discover God's richest treasures." *

So how should we respond when confronted with thoughts of DOUBT? Not by asking God, why things are the way they are? But by asking God, what He would have us learn from the way things are?

"Come now, let us reason together, says the LORD: though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool." (Isaiah 1:18) ESV

Luke 7:18-35 (ESV)

John's request to Jesus (Vs 18-20)

<sup>18</sup>The disciples of John reported all these things to him. And John, <sup>19</sup>calling two of his disciples to him, sent them to the Lord, saying, "Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?" <sup>20</sup>And when the men had come to him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?'"

Jesus' reply to John (Vs 21-23)

<sup>21</sup>In that hour he healed many people of diseases and plagues and evil spirits, and on many who were blind he bestowed sight. <sup>22</sup>And he answered them, "Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have good news preached to them. <sup>23</sup>And blessed is the one who is not offended by me."

Jesus' respect for John (Vs 24-30)

<sup>24</sup>When John's messengers had gone, Jesus began to speak to the crowds concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? <sup>25</sup>What then did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are dressed in splendid clothing and live in luxury are in kings' courts. <sup>26</sup>What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup>This is he of whom it is written, "Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you."

<sup>28</sup>I tell you, among those born of women none is greater than John. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he." <sup>29</sup>(When all the people heard this, and the tax collectors too, they declared God just, having been baptized with the baptism of John, <sup>30</sup>but the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the purpose of God for themselves, not having been baptized by him.)

Jesus' rebuke of certain Jews (Vs 31-35)

<sup>31</sup>"To what then shall I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like? <sup>32</sup>They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling to one another, "We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a dirge, and you did not weep."

<sup>33</sup>For John the Baptist has come eating no bread and drinking no wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.'
<sup>34</sup>The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Look at him! A glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' <sup>35</sup>Yet wisdom is justified by all her children."
