The Christmas season has been about the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ. He brought peace into a wicked world. He was born a baby in a manger to a young couple who could not have possibly understood all of who He is and what He would do. As Christ began His ministry He reached out to 4 fishermen that were working along the Sea of Galilee. He calls to them and tells them to follow Him. This radically changes their lives as they leave everything to follow in the footsteps of the Son of God. Jesus promised to teach them the art of finding men to bring to God as opposed to finding fish. This morning we will consider what lessons we can learn from the willingness of the early disciples and the expectation that Jesus has for us as His disciples today.

Read Matthew 4:18-22 (NET)

<sup>18</sup> As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee he saw two brothers, Simon (called Peter) and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were fishermen).

<sup>19</sup> He said to them, "Follow me, and I will turn you into fishers of people."

<sup>21</sup> Going on from there he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in a boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets. Then he called them.
