<sup>2</sup> preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with great patience and instruction. <sup>3</sup> For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance to their own desires, <sup>4</sup> and will turn away their ears from the truth and will turn aside to myths. <sup>5</sup> But you, be sober in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

2 Timothy 4:2-5 (NASB)

The end of the second Chapter of 1 John gives us a strong warning against false teachers. John draws a distinction between the people that stay with them and the people that go out from them. Even more important John draws a distinction between teaching the truth and teaching lies. He clearly instructs about the person of Jesus and anyone that denies Jesus as the Son of God does not know the Father. Jesus is the only way to the Father and if someone denies Jesus then they are teaching lies that come from the antichrist. The question for us today is how can we make sure that we are not led astray. There are many teachers in our society that teach many different things. This week we will see that John reminds us that we have an anointing from the Spirit to be our guide. Join us this week as we talk about what the anointing is and how we can follow its guidance and be assured that we are not lead astray and that we receive the promise of life.

1 John 2:18-29 (NASB)

<sup>18</sup> Children, it is the last hour; and just as you heard that antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have appeared; from this we know that it is the last hour. <sup>19</sup> They went out from us, but they were not really of us; for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us; but they went out, so that it would be shown that they all are not of us.<sup>20</sup> But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all know. <sup>21</sup> I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you do know it, and because no lie is of the truth. <sup>22</sup> Who is the liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, the one who denies the Father and the Son. <sup>23</sup> Whoever denies the Son does not have the Father; the one who confesses the Son has the Father also.<sup>24</sup> As for you, let that abide in you which you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, you also will abide in the Son and in the Father.

<sup>25</sup> This is the promise which He Himself made to us: eternal life.

<sup>26</sup> These things I have written to you concerning those who are trying to deceive you. <sup>27</sup> As for you, the anointing which you received from Him abides in you, and you have no need for anyone to teach you; but as His anointing teaches you about all things, and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you abide in Him.

<sup>28</sup> Now, little children, abide in Him, so that when He appears, we may have confidence and not shrink away from Him in shame at His coming. <sup>29</sup> If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone also who practices righteousness is born of Him.
