What does God SAY? Prayerfully note significant details and terms emphasized in the passage.

Read: 2 Corinthians 8:1-15; 9:6-12

<sup>1</sup> And now, brothers and sisters, we want you to know about the grace that God has given the Macedonian churches.

<sup>2</sup> In the midst of a very severe trial, their overflowing joy and their extreme poverty welled up in rich generosity.

<sup>3</sup> For I testify that they gave as much as they were able, and even beyond their ability. Entirely on their own,

<sup>4</sup> they urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this service to the Lord's people.

<sup>5</sup> And they exceeded our expectations: They gave themselves first of all to the Lord, and then by the will of God also to us.

<sup>6</sup> So we urged Titus, just as he had earlier made a beginning, to bring also to completion this act of grace on your part.

<sup>7</sup> But since you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in complete earnestness and in the love we have kindled in you—see that you also excel in this grace of giving.

<sup>8</sup> I am not commanding you, but I want to test the sincerity of your love by comparing it with the earnestness of others.

<sup>9</sup> For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you through his poverty might become rich.

<sup>10</sup> And here is my judgment about what is best for you in this matter. Last year you were the first not only to give but also to have the desire to do so.

<sup>11</sup> Now finish the work, so that your eager willingness to do it may be matched by your completion of it, according to your means.

<sup>12</sup> For if the willingness is there, the gift is acceptable according to what one has, not according to what one does not have.

<sup>13</sup> Our desire is not that others might be relieved while you are hard pressed, but that there might be equality.

<sup>14</sup> At the present time your plenty will supply what they need, so that in turn their plenty will supply what you need. The goal is equality,

<sup>15</sup> as it is written: "The one who gathered much did not have too much, and the one who gathered little did not have too little."

2 Corinthians 9:6-12

<sup>6</sup> Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously.

<sup>7</sup> Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

<sup>8</sup> And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work.

<sup>9</sup> As it is written: "They have freely scattered their gifts to the poor; their righteousness endures forever."

<sup>10</sup> Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness.

<sup>11</sup> You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.

<sup>12</sup> This service that you perform is not only supplying the needs of the Lord's people but is also overflowing in many expressions of thanks to God.

EXPLORE His Word

What does God MEAN?

1. What does it mean to be a steward of God's possessions?
2. According to our text, what motivated the Macedonians to give generously?
3. According to chapter 8:5, the saints give themselves to God, what does this mean and how do we apply this concept to our giving?
4. Is there a difference between tithing and grace giving, and which model should the church follow?
5. Why does Paul instruct this church not to give under compulsion?
6. According to chapter 9:10-11, what has God promised us as we give?

③ EMBRACE His Word

Why does this MATTER to me?

Summarize your thoughts on the passage:

Write about what God wants you to KNOW, to FEEL, and to DO...
