This week we will start chapter 17 of the gospel of Luke. In the first 10 verses of this chapter we see 4 instructions given to the disciples. It talks about causing another to sin, forgiveness, faith, and being a servant. While some theologians take these as 4 separate teachings that Luke has brought together, there is some indication that there is a progression that ties the 4 together. Either way, we must consider the four teachings and how we can apply them to our lives so that we can best reflect Christ and serve Him well in this life. Join us this week as we talk about some of the markers of a faithful disciple.

Sin, Forgiveness, Faith, and Service

1 Jesus said to his disciples, “Stumbling blocks are sure to come, but woe to the one through whom they come! 2 It would be better for him to have a millstone tied around his neck and be thrown into the sea than for him to cause one of these little ones to sin. 3 Watch yourselves! If your brother sins, rebuke him. If he repents, forgive him. 4 Even if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times returns to you saying, ‘I repent,’ you must forgive him.”

5 The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!” 6 So the Lord replied, “If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this black mulberry tree, ‘Be pulled out by the roots and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.

7 “Would any one of you say to your slave who comes in from the field after plowing or shepherding sheep, ‘Come at once and sit down for a meal’? 8 Won’t the master instead say to him, ‘Get my dinner ready, and make yourself ready to serve me while I eat and drink. Then you may eat and drink’? 9 He won’t thank the slave because he did what he was told, will he? 10 So you too, when you have done everything you were commanded to do, should say, ‘We are slaves undeserving of special praise; we have only done what was our duty.’”
